A Study on Relationship between Outdoor Education and Other Educational Activities

By Kazuyuki Noguchi*

The purpose of this study was to find the relationship between outdoor education and other educational activities which was concerned with outdoor education.

As the result of the study, the followings were found;

1) Outdoor pursuits, outdoor recreation and camp are activities in outdoors, and can regard teaching materials of outdoor education.

2) Conservation education is involved to environmental education. There are many overlapped issues between outdoor education and environmental education about educational way of thinking. In other hand, outdoor education has its peculiar aim such as wise use about leisure.

3) There are many overlapped issues between outdoor education and experiential education about quality of education and method. Adventure education is contained within outdoor education and experiential education about quality of education and method.
