To the Faculty of Law

of Keio Gijyuku:

I desire to place on record my profound grief at the passing of my former student, the eminent professor Kambe. As one of my most diligent students just fifty years ago, he displayed that ambition for scholarship which was destined to make him an able jurist and to lead to the career of a university professor. I am proud to know that I helped to develop his ~~talents~~ and that he continued always to regard his early teacher as his friend.

Such a character is a perpetual ornament to the name of Keio Gijyuku and I join with those who lament his loss.
